- m) Report to the Board on the above matters.

4.3 Overseeing internal and external audit processes

Internal Audit

- f) Receive a report on the results of the internal auditors' work on a periodic basis.
- g) Review and monitor the Management's responsiveness to the internal auditors' findings and recommendations.
- h) Ensure that the internal auditors have direct and unrestricted access to the Chairman of the Board and the AC.
- i) Participate in the selection and approval of the appointment or dismissal of the internal auditors.
- j) Assess the performance and determine the remuneration of the internal auditors, in accordance with the Company's guidelines.
- k) Ensure co-ordination between the internal and external auditors, and to ensure that the internal audit function is adequately resourced and has appropriate standing within the Company, and to review and monitor its effectiveness.

External Audit

- a) Act as the key representative body for overseeing the Company's relations with the external auditors.
- b) In connection with the terms of engagement to the external auditors, to make recommendations to the Board on the selection, appointment, reappointment, resignation and removal of the external auditors based upon a thorough assessment of the external auditors' functioning, and approve the remuneration and terms of engagement of the external auditors and any questions of its resignation or dismissal. This proposal should be submitted to the general meeting of shareholders for approval when there is a change of external auditors. Where the Board disagrees with the AC's view on the selection, appointment, reappointment, resignation or removal of the external auditors, the Company should include in the Corporate Governance Report a statement from the AC explaining its recommendation and also the reason(s) why the Board has taken a different view.
- c) Review the audit fees and recommend it for approval by the Board.

- d) Monitor and assess the external auditors' independence and objectivity and the effectiveness of the audit process in accordance with applicable standards.

Steps to consider include:

- Seeking reassurance that the auditors and their staff have no family, financial, employment, investment, or business relationship with the Group (other than in the normal course of business), based on a forwarded report by the external auditors;
 - Seeking from the audit firm, on an annual basis, information about policies and processes for maintaining independence and monitoring the external auditors' compliance with relevant regulatory requirements (e.g. audit partner's rotation requirements, level of fees the Company pays in proportion to the overall income of the firm, etc.);
 - Meeting with the auditor, at least annually, in the absence of Management, to discuss matters relating to its audit fees, any issues arising from the audit and any other matters the auditor may wish to raise;
 - Agreeing with the Board and monitoring the Company's policy for the employment of employees or former employees of external auditors.
- e) Develop and implement policy on engaging external auditor to supply non-audit services to ensure the external auditors' independence or objectivity is not impaired. For this purpose, "external auditor" includes any entity that is under common control, ownership or management with the audit firm or any entity that a reasonable and informed third party knowing all relevant information would reasonably conclude to be part of the audit firm nationally or internationally. In doing so, the AC will:
- Set and apply a formal policy specifying the types of non-audit services: (i) from which the external auditors are excluded; (ii) for which the external auditors can be engaged without referral to the AC; (iii) for which a case-by-case decision is necessary by the AC;
 - Consider whether the skills and experience of the audit firm make it a suitable supplier of the non-audit services;
 - Ensure safeguards are in place to provide assurance that the external auditors' objectivity and independence is not impaired when performing non-audit services;

- Consider the nature of the non-audit services and the related fee levels (both individually and in aggregate) relative to the audit fee;
 - Report to the Board, identifying and making recommendations on any matters where action or improvement is needed.
- f) Assess, at the end of the audit cycle, the effectiveness of the audit process in accordance with applicable standards by:
- Discussing with the external auditors the nature and scope of the audit and reporting obligations before the audit commences;
 - Reviewing the external auditors' findings arising from the audit (including any issues that have subsequently been resolved), giving particular considerations to the key accounting and audit judgments (including why certain errors might remain unadjusted), the level of errors identified during the audit, and the explanation obtained from the Management;
 - Reviewing whether the external auditors have met the agreed audit plan, and understanding the reasons for any changes, including changes in perceived audit risks, and the work undertaken by the external auditors to address those risks;
 - Assessing the external auditors' accuracy in their handling of the key accounting and identifying audit judgments, their response to questions from the AC, and their commentary on the systems of internal control;
 - Obtaining feedback about the conduct of the audit from the Management.
- g) Review the audit representation letters before consideration by the Board, giving particular consideration to matters that relate to non-standard issues.
- h) Review the content of the external auditors' management letter in order to assess whether it is based on a good understanding of the Company's business, and monitor the responsiveness of the Management to the recommendations made (or the reasons why they have not been acted upon), and to ensure that the Board will provide a timely response to the issues raised in the external auditor's management letter.
- i) Ensure that the external auditors have direct and unrestricted access to the Chairman of the AC and the Chairman of the Board.

- b) Consider the need for a general mandate for CCTs.
- c) Appoint an independent financial adviser to advise on a general mandate.
- d) Where a general mandate is being renewed, consider whether the methods or procedures for determining the transaction prices are sufficient to ensure that the transactions will be carried out on normal commercial terms and will not be prejudicial to the interests of the Company and its minority shareholders.
